ABOUT THE DESTINATION

NICE

Nice is located on the French Riviera (Côte d'Azur), it is a vibrant and picturesque city that blends Mediterranean charm with a rich cultural heritage. The city enjoys a Mediterranean climate with mild, wet winters and hot, dry summers.

Nice is known for its delicious cuisine, influenced by both French and Mediterranean flavors. Local specialties include Niçoise salad, socca - a chickpea-flour pancake, & pissaladière - a type of onion tart. The combination of its natural beauty, cultural richness, culinary delights, and historical significance makes Nice a unique and multifaceted destination on the Mediterranean coast.

Visitors can experience a blend of tradition and modernity, relaxation, and exploration in this captivating city.

ABOUT THE DESTINATION

PROVENCE

Provence is characterized by rolling vineyards, lavender fields, olive groves, and picturesque villages. The region benefits from a Mediterranean climate, with hot, dry summers and mild winters.

Provence is famous for its stunning lavender fields, particularly in the Luberon and Plateau de Valensole areas. The sight of endless purple fields in bloom during the summer months is an iconic image associated with the region.

Many artists including Vincent van Gogh and Paul Cézanne have been inspired by Provence. Famous dishes include ratatouille, bouillabaisse, and tapenade. Provence's unique blend of natural beauty, cultural richness, and culinary delights make it a sought-after destination for those seeking a harmonious and immersive experience in the heart of southern France.
